

CALVARY EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Counseling for Persons Affected by the Fires

Threads of Hope, a network of private licensed practitioners, is partnering with Calvary Episcopal Church, Bastrop over the next six months to make counseling available for Bastrop County residents who have been affected by the fires.

No one should forgo counseling because of financial constraints.
Fees adjustments based on client's need.

If you are struggling with the devastation and loss you have experienced or witnessed in the community as a result of the Bastrop County fires, call 512-327-0030 ext. 302 to make an appointment.

All appointments will be held in Calvary's Gethsemane Youth building.
See map below for directions.

Donations to support the cost of this adjusted-rate counseling may be made at www.threadsofhopetx.org
